Explanatory Note to Financial Statement

- 1. The court has been asked to consider the parties' financial position and to make appropriate orders for financial provision for the parties and for any relevant children of your family.
- 2. It cannot perform this task unless both parties fully co-operate with each other and with the court by making full and frank disclosure of their income and financial resources.
- 3. The Financial Statement is a comprehensive document which both parties are required to complete to provide relevant information to the court.
- 4. As you will have noticed it is quite lengthy, and a substantial amount of information needs to be provided. The document has been designed to be as clear and straightforward as possible. If you have a lawyer he or she will assist you in its preparation.
- 5. If you are unrepresented the Financial Statement has been set out so that it can be filled in by a lay person.
- 6. Although it requires careful and patient reading it is an uncomplicated Financial Statement despite the number of questions that it contains. Answer all questions as truthfully and as fully as you can.
- 7. Some questions may not relate to your situation in which case you will not need to answer them. For those questions that do not relate to you state "Not applicable" to show that you have read the question, or put a line through the box provided for the answer.
- 8. This is an important matter and it is in your best interests to complete the Financial Statement as fully as possible. Allow yourself sufficient time to fill it in properly and within the time limit set by the court
